Rajarajeswari Group of Institutions at Bangalore comprises of 8 institutions headed by our esteemed Chairman Dr. A.C. Shanmugam, a passionate educationalist who envisions to provide quality health care services to all medically unreached population.

Message from Organising committee

Greetings from the organising committee!

We are pleased to announce the commence of our cultural event 'EKATTVA -THE FEST OF ONENESS'.
The circle of life is a mystery to all of us, three years ago life was simple. Words used solemnly in our daily life, like pandemic and quarantine became a part of our daily conversation in our not so unconventional life of hardships due to COVID.
Despite all our loss and sorrows, we emerged victorious in the race of life and the circle of life continued to spin!
These hardships have taught us so many things, but the most important thing we learnt in due time was the fact that life is sublime and must be enjoyed to the fullest.

Realising this our organising committee has joined their workforce to have you experience the little joys in life and appreciate it in the forms of colours, words, melodies, giggles, dance, and happiness.

We wish that you would honor us with your presence in the journey of finding the spirit of oneness and be a part of these events with elevated zeal and enthusiasm.

Wound Management Workshop

ARE WE DOING IT RIGHT?

- A common question we hear either from our colleagues or ringing in our heads when we are dressing a wound.
- A dressing maybe the basic skill that one must acquire at the young age of the budding doctor's career but often overlooked and neglected.
- Here is an opportunity to turn the doubt into confidence, from 'are doing it right' to 'this is how we do it'.

Topics covered

1. Understanding sterility
2. Dressing removal policy
3. Instruments handling
4. Understanding and usage of antibacterial solution
5. Dressing technique and wound cleaning
6. Disposal of soiled material.
